

SPIRITUAL CONGREGATION PAZ Y AMOR
THE PROPHETESS' LEGACY

Spiritual Science: The Prophetess' Legacy

The Spiritual Congregation Paz y Amor gives infinite thanks to the Divine Father Creator, who sent into our lives the prophetess and beloved spiritual guide, Mother Laura Antonia.

Contenido

Introduction	1
I. The birth of the prophetess	4
II. Beginnings of Paz y Amor Spiritual Congregation:	11
III. The Golden Years (1972-1989)	23
IV. Spiritual Science	33
V. Before the end of the millennium.....	39
VI. The legacy of Laura Antonia, the prophetess	42

Introduction

Glory to God in the highest, and peace on earth to men of good will!

Whoever sits alone today can look up to heaven and rejoice. Yes, there is a God. The Father Creator of all things in the universe, and he communicates with Earth in various ways. History was marked by the coming of the divine master Jesus and, before that, so did various prophets, who were messengers of wisdom and divine knowledge. In the same way, Mother Laura Antonia was commanded to spread Spiritual Science.

Just as it happened with the birth of the Messiah, the existence of Mother Laura Antonia was announced in the Bible, in several of its passages. In Matthew 12, verse 42, the queen of the south is clearly named: "The queen of the south will rise up in judgment with this generation and condemn it, because she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, there is one greater than Solomon in this place". The same text is repeated in Luke chapter 11, verse 31.

In this line, we can interpret the mentions of two passages in the book of Revelation. The first of these, in chapter 21, verse 1, speaks of the coming of the new Jerusalem: "I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. And I John saw the holy city, the New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them; and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them as their God. And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the first things are passed away." The second passage is chapter 12, verse 1, of the same book, which reads: "And there appeared a great sign in heaven, a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars.

The Mother Laura Antonia began her prophetic path in 1967, when she received the mission to establish the Spiritual Center Paz y Amor, through the following message from a master of cosmogony: "I am a messenger of the Divine Father Creator, the Divine Master Jesus received the order of the Divine Father and has sent me to Earth to establish the Spiritual Center Paz y Amor. I have come to fulfill this sacred and divine mandate. I leave this tree planted, with very few leaves at this moment. You must invite many more brothers and sisters to join us, so that this tree grows and becomes leafy, and its branches reach the top. Every week I will come to leave teachings, and every Thursday you must pray a sacred chain of prayers and praises to the Divine Father Creator.

In this book, we compile a large part of the teachings that the masters delivered weekly for decades, sacred words that all people should know and that reflect the perfection of the wise men who visited the congregation, angels' messengers of the Divine Father Creator.

The purpose of these pages is to record the sacred messages that were revealed by Mother Laura Antonia, preserving them for future generations, her legacy. The high spirits pointed out through her that we are living in the times of the Apocalypse, which is reflected in the constant wars and catastrophes that the world is going through today. Only those who open their hearts to God's teachings will be able to survive.

As the masters of cosmogony said: "May the peace of the Divine Father Creator be present in those spirits that try to improve themselves. Blessed is the man who follows the teachings that come through Sister Laura Antonia".

We invite you to learn about the history of the Spiritual Congregation Paz y Amor, paying homage to its founder, Mother Laura Antonia, to discover what spiritual science is and how to improve the existence of society in the dark times that plague us.

Glory to God in the highest and peace on earth to men of good will

I. The birth of the prophetess

Laura Antonia Alcaíno Pozo, the woman who would become the leader of the Paz y Amor Spiritual Congregation, was born on a stormy night in Rancagua, Chile. A copious rain, lightning and thunder announced her birth on July 22, 1938. Her Mother had had two miscarriages before conceiving her and during the last months she had to rest due to complications of her pregnancy, perhaps the prelude to a life not without tribulations.

Her parents, Laura Pozo and Manuel Alcaíno, were living in Graneros, Chile, when the firstborn was born. She enjoyed those early years of country life, where she was very close to farms and animals. However, when Antonia entered adolescence and due to economic setback, the family moved to the Puente Alto, a district of Santiago, where her father set up a shoe repair and manufacturing workshop.

Since she was a child, she had mediumistic experiences that announced her mission on Earth. At the age of eight, Laura had her first revelation in a dream. She saw a luminous pyramid suspended from which emanated a voice that said: "you must search for the cornerstone, until you find it". From then on, she would go out with her friends on bike rides and search for the stone.

One day, on a family trip to the Pirque foothills, the girl went on her special search and, without realizing it, she had wandered so far away from the place that twilight came. The families gathered everything to get back home, and among the mess of children and vehicles, they only noticed her absence when they arrived there. They returned immediately and started looking for her with flashlights. In the meantime, Laura felt hungry. Suddenly, she found on a stone a small bundle made with a white cloth, containing some kneaded bread tortillas, hard-boiled eggs and salt. Having satisfied her appetite, she calmly looked for a place to rest and found a kind of cave in the bushes, where she fell asleep. In the middle of the desperate search, a beam of light pointed out the exact place where the girl was in the middle of the bushes. They found Laura Antonia sound asleep. In the future she would understand that she did not need to continue that search, that cornerstone was something that lived inside her.

She studied high school at the Manuel Rodriguez Institute in Puente Alto, Chile. During those years she received the teachings of a spiritual master, who identified himself as Galeoto. This master of cosmogony had been a Roman gladiator and, when he materialized, he made the room shake. He presented himself as a guide, sharing teachings and revelations about her future as a spiritual leader.

These experiences earned her the rejection of her mother, who, as a strict Catholic, viewed her firstborn's behavior with suspicion. Nor did she count with the understanding of her siblings, one male and two females, with whom she found it difficult to share. Except for her father, who was always understanding and loving towards her, her family environment was antagonistic.

When she finished high school, she met Mario Núñez, eleven years older, who presented himself as an introverted young man, modest and kind-hearted. They married on the morning of May 30, 1959, when she was about to turn 21. Laura Antonia and her family lived in an old house in front of the San José Hospital in Santiago. Her husband was an electrician and worked in the maintenance of the hospital. As soon as they married, the family began to grow, and their six children were born: Manuel Antonio, Mario, Maritza, Myriam, Manuel Antonio "Pocho" and Marcela. The joy that the children brought, however, was overshadowed by that man who at first presented himself as a quiet man. Mario, her husband, often transformed himself into a monster, even beating her on numerous occasions. Her ordeal worsened when a routine tonsil operation due to medical negligence resulted in the death of her firstborn, Manuel Antonio, who was only 7 years old.

By April 1967, a small community had begun to form in Laura Antonia's home. One of the first to arrive was Sister Gladys Yáñez, who, afflicted by her problems, came to Mother Antonia for advice and reassurance. This is how Gladys remembers it: "She called us brothers and sisters and spoke to us about the brothers of the astral, the Divine Hierarchy, the Father Hierarch Livio and the Divine Master Jesus. She would tell us to leave our minds blank and think of God and she would pray asking the brothers to help us. I was attracted to something great that I did not understand. I would say to her, 'Sister, I don't know how I got here, is it bad? And she would answer: 'No, sister, let yourself be led, it is the brothers of the astral who bring you here, they help you when you are confused or when something happens to you; invoke the Hierarchy of Father Hierarch Livio and you will have the help of the brothers'. The days and months went by, at night, Sister Laura used to talk to us about science. We gathered together, three or four people, and we loved to listen to her, she invited us to meditate, to take our mind to the Father. Something inexplicable would come over us and we would feel the presence of something marvelous. Sister Laura would say to us: 'The Hierarchy is here!' And then, on the glass of the table or on the bottles with water, the Divine Hierarchy would appear reflected like a photograph of a large family.

In the spring of that year, on October 2nd, while the plum blossoms brought hope to the grayish Santiago landscape, Antonia was sharing tea with four of her friends when an unusual event occurred. She lost consciousness in front of Gladys Yáñez, Elena Doren, and sisters Ercilia and Olivia Marín. More than friends, they had become Mother Laura intimate confidants, seeking comfort in her wisdom. The spirit, who identified himself as Friar Martin de Porres, a Dominican friar from the time of the Peruvian viceroyalty, spoke through the Mother with the voice of a man, saying that by the will of the Divine Father and the Master Jesus, he had been sent to establish the Spiritist Center Paz y Amor to bring, through Sister Antonia, the true word of God to humanity in the era of the Apocalypse. Then, the master instructed them to get together to pray every Thursday, in a chain of prayer dedicated to the Creator. Within seconds, Laura joined in again, filled with a new energy. It was a few minutes after her first mediumistic trance and Mother Antonia had no memory of what had happened.

It was at that moment that Laura Antonia became Sister Antonia and created the Centro Espírita Paz y Amor (Paz y Amor Spiritist Center). This is how Gladys Yáñez, retired from the National Health Service, remembers that moment:

"The first experience I had, and without any knowledge of Spiritual Science, was that of suddenly hearing a man's voice coming from the lips of Sister Antonia, when she had her first incorporation. The angel spoke thus: 'Glory to God in the highest and peace on earth to men of good will', my mission dear brothers, consists in founding this Spiritual Center, whose name will be Paz y Amor'. Then he said: 'Wake up Sister Antonia'".

After this first incorporation, other spirits came forward to transmit their message through Sister Antonia. The first members of the congregation began to meet every Thursday, as they had been instructed. As Spiritist science explains, all human beings possess mediumistic qualities to a greater or lesser degree, according to their spiritual progress. The prophets and divine messengers possess it to a superlative degree and are in contact with superior planes of the astral. In the case of Mother Antonia, she had all the mediumistic characteristics described in the Gospels, such as having prophetic dreams, spiritual visions in the waking state, channeling auditory messages in the waking state, performing divine healings, unfolding and being able to prophesy the future. "One important thing we have learned; is that in the spiritual world where spirits live free of a material body, time does not exist, they have no measurements of the passing of hours or minutes, because for them time is always the present. Thus, when an advanced spirit can 'see' events that will happen on Earth in the future, they cannot know neither the time nor the date of those events. It is just as it has happened with the prophets, no one can give the exact time of the things prophesied. But if you can sense by the events that begin to give figure that these prophecies are fulfilled," explains Ruddy Palma, also a former member of the Congregation.

In the years that followed, Laura Antonia's challenges did not cease. In 1969, her house burned to the ground. Immediately, the brothers and sisters of the congregation came to her aid. First, she moved to a room in the hospital where her husband worked, and then to a temporary home on Zañartu Street.

In this first stage of the congregation, besides receiving the messages, the participants of the Spiritist Center witnessed the healing of sick people in several opportunities. Some of these sick people were sent by the hospitals of Santiago, even being evicted by the doctors. Those healings were carried out during the first years, ceasing only when the guides advised them to do so.

On April 20, 1972, the Centro Espírita Paz y Amor (Paz y Amor Spiritist Center) obtained its legal status, with its address at 972 Caliche Street, in Recoleta. In this place, Laura Antonia built a cosmetics workshop where she manufactured toothpaste, shampoo and other basic necessities, with which she provided for her family's sustenance. That same year, the Astral Magazine was self-published, containing the first prophecies of Mother Antonia. In the following years, the Spiritist Center, which in 1975 would change its name to Paz y Amor Spiritual Congregation, added more and more followers, reaching four hundred members by the end of the eighties.

In 1973, the Mother, as she was affectionately called in the congregation, decided to separate from the father of her children and then began a relationship with Carlos Opazo, with whom she lived until the end of her earthly days. Together they found the plot of land in La Pintana where the meetings of the growing group were held.

In 1974, she built her cosmetics laboratory in La Pintana. It remained open for only two years since, contaminated by the same political and religious persecution of which Paz y Amor was victim, the Ministry of Health decided to close it.

During the winter of 1976, the Mother, together with Carlos Opazo, composed the Youth Hymn, which they would later record with the support of the Carabineros (Chilean Police) Choral Society, thanks to the efforts of Archbishops Saba and Uvaldo.

Hymn of the Youth of New Jerusalem

*Forward, youth forward,
Hold high your emblem,
Of the New Jerusalem is the banner that will give lies the anathema.*

*The Master showed us the way,
Towards the blessed New Jerusalem,
Of the twentieth century she is the prophetess,
who shows us the path of good.*

*Filled with divine truth and glory,
Living temple of the Father on Earth,
In his light shall the nations walk,
and everlasting peace shall displace war.*

*Youth, let's move forward to liberate,
The Battle of Armageddon,
Our invincible sword is the truth,
which the Divine Creator gives us.*

*Go ahead, filled with joy,
Youth against the dragon shall fight,
our divine invincible sword,
The apocalyptic beast shall be destroyed.*

*Let us form millenary legions,
Of brave soldiers of good,
With the white robes we shall conquer,
The dragon and the beast too.
With the forces of the Divine Father,
Let us break the chains of evil,
let us shatter the age-old dogma,
That the final hour is at hand.*

*Paz y Amor, Paz y Amor, the yearning,
From the blessed Congregation,
The Holy Spirit, in His flight, gives us His blessing.*

*Our voices are raised to the sky,
In praise of the supreme maker,
With united works we will go,
Advancing towards the Divine Creator.
Forward, youth forward,
Hold high your emblem,
Of the New Jerusalem is the banner That will give lies the anathema.*

*Forward, young people
forward, forward!... forward!....*

As the number of people attending the prayer sessions increased, the neighbors began to persecute the congregation, and in January 1979 they succeeded in revoking the congregation's legal status. The persecution was such that the neighbors even went to make false accusations to the policemen, who arrested her and twenty brothers in 1976. The Mother was taken to the Tres Alamos prison camp, where she was held for six days. Finally, she was released for lack of evidence.

Until shortly before the end of the millennium, Mother Laura Antonia continued to receive messages from the masters of cosmogony, through mediumistic trances. At other times, ancestral wisdom came to her in the form of dreams. In 1980, she had a prophetic dream in which she saw herself with the brothers of the congregation in a large old house. On the roof there was a large construction in the form of a metal box and scaffolding. This structure had an imposing appearance and looked as if it would collapse at any moment. The roof of the house already had a huge crack and that metal construction, which was red with a thin yellow stripe, looked like it was about to fall. The brothers were trying to move away from the place where the red device could hit them, to avoid being crushed. However, they noticed that, on the other side, there was some kind of huge cauldron, about to explode, of a faded blue color with a white and yellow portion in the center. She tried to unplug the boiler to avoid the explosion, but this maneuver proved useless and increased the danger. She decided to plug the boiler back in, which was still about to explode at any moment. Then, he saw that the brothers were taking refuge in a part of the house that was located between the two dangers. There they felt protected. Inside the house there were also many soldiers in combat uniforms, but they all had the faces of corpses, and their uniforms were stained with human fat. This message was delivered to the brothers, foreshadowing the great dangers and wars that lurked then and continue to engulf mankind.

Despite the economic ups and downs and the resistance encountered for her message, Mother Antonia did not cease in her efforts and overcame every obstacle that appeared, including the direct legal attack of her older children. These sufferings eventually took their toll on her health. From 1999 onwards, hypertension, family problems, the consequences of constant mediumistic incorporations for more than thirty years and the demands of so many years leading the spiritual group, took their toll on her body, which over the course of the next four years left her prostrate and ended her earthly life on December 24, 2003.

II. Beginnings of Paz y Amor Spiritual Congregation:

Let's walk pilgrims!

"Let us walk as pilgrims

Let's walk without resting

That God is watching us from the astral.

Let's walk down the road

That the Master came to show" (excerpt from Hymn Community Manifested by the Divine Hierarchy)

The first years of the Christian Congregation Paz y Amor were filled with unprecedented events and powerful encounters with divine spirits. The incorporations of the Mother occurred frequently and the brothers who joined the prayer group recorded the sessions on magnetic audio tapes. On each occasion, Mother Laura Antonia adapted her vocal cords to the voice of different masters of cosmogony who identified themselves as the Divine Master Jesus, Fray Martin de Porres, Master Hierarch Livio and Master Cirineos, among others, who came to warn humanity of the approaching Apocalypse.

The religious group was founded with the purpose of spreading the teachings of Jesus and the sacred scriptures, in addition to studying the messages and prophecies of the Mother Antonia and the angels, who through her, communicated with the earthly plane. Also, between 1969 and 1972, healings of incurable patients were performed. This arose because some members of the Center worked at the San José Hospital. Gladys Yáñez and Elena Doren were the first to contact incurable patients to help them overcome their serious health problems.

Soon, the news spread throughout Santiago and patients from other hospitals began to arrive. In 1970, the masters of cosmogony instituted the Medical Board of the Divine Hierarchy, a group of spirits who had been physicians in their past lives on Earth, and who performed the operations. This practice was discontinued because many of the patients, after being cured, did not follow the path of God.

The Centro Espírita Paz y Amor has been characterized since its beginnings for carrying out different social works, including help to hospitals, homes, as well as donation of food, clothes and medicines for the needy, all completely self-financed by the brothers.

In the beginning, the devotees of the congregation met every Thursday at the mother's house, located on San José Street, in front of the hospital of the same name, in the Independencia district. There, the sessions took place where Mother Antonia received messages from the masters. In one of the messages, she was asked to vest some of the brothers as priests to help her spread the word of God on Earth. And so, it was done, several brothers were responsible for leading the spiritual development of those who were part of the congregation, nominated by the divine messengers.

At the La Pintana site (1976)

Antonia on Caliche street, in Recoleta, Chile-

1 Paz y Amor spiritual congregation anniversary (1976)

With archbishop Efraín Santibáñez

Brothers and Mother here praying around the Mesmer magnetic cuvette.

Healing stage

From 1969 to 1972, the Divine Hierarchy instructed Mother Antonia to offer healing for the sick who came to the Paz y Amor Center. These high spirits performed surgeries and healed through the aforementioned astral medical board. The leader of the Congregation acted as the representative of this hierarchy on Earth and received their orders in her mediumistic trances.

There are many testimonies of those who benefited from healing during these early years. Among them is that of Ricardo Rodriguez, who was a member of the Congregation since 1968 and, being diagnosed with a duodenal ulcer, was unable to find relief in allopathic medicine. When his case was consulted before the medical board, it was determined that he also had an inflamed gall bladder and an atrophied left lobe of the liver. The operation was performed on December 6, 1969. "At the appointed time, I was lying on the stretcher in the center, prepared in spirit and totally relaxed. Mother Antonia was sitting in her armchair, the room where we were in total darkness. When our medium fell into a trance, the head of the medical board, Dr. Marcus Sheapper, came in, encouraging me and saying that everything would be all right," Ricardo told Astral Magazine. The patient describes how they put a medicine in his mouth and that he could hear the materialized surgical material acting on his body. The spirits then advised him to follow a diet of soft food until he was fully recovered.

Ercilia Marín, another member of the congregation, was a witness at the incorporation of Master Livio, when Mother was invested with the power to heal the sick. "Our center is not a clinic or hospital dedicated only to healing (...) Only those sick people who acquire a true faith in God get better," she told Astral Magazine. There she also said that those who wanted to be treated by the astral doctors had to register at the Center and attend the spirituality classes taught there. As for the type of healing, she describes it as of the magnetic-spiritual type and affirms that "by healing the sick bodies, the spirits were also healed".

In the first issue of Astral magazine, the testimonies of Luisa Fáunderz, who was cured of a rheumatism that prevented her from performing her daily work, and Gabriel Ureta, who was operated by the Divine Hierarchy for a brain tumor, also appear.

Unfortunately, many of those who came seeking healing were not faithful to the commitment they had made to the Spiritist Center to follow the teachings of Christ, so Mother Antonia was instructed by the divine hierarchy to cease this service to the community.

House fire

Mother Antonia's house welcomed all those who wanted to listen to the teachings of the Divine Master Jesus and the first prophecies delivered by the high spirits. During the Thursday meetings, many times the masters of cosmogony recommended the brothers and sisters to guard the tape recorder and the collection of tapes. However, because they didn't understand the reason for this warning, no one did anything about it. At the beginning of 1969, a fire took everything: furniture, souvenirs, the tape recorder and the magnetic tapes with the recordings of the sessions. Thanks to divine protection, Antonia managed to get out of the fire with her children, so they were all unharmed. According to Luis de la Huerta, known as Brother Chito, who worked as a caretaker during the days of prayer, the house was made of wood. After the accident, Mother Antonia was housed for a couple of months in the San José hospital, where her husband worked. Then, they moved to a house in Zañartu street, in Independencia commune, until they found the house in Caliche street.

Legal personality

The Centro Espírita Paz y Amor obtained its legal status on April 20, 1972, when it had been operating for almost five years. The address was established at Caliche 972, Recoleta. In this same place, more and more brothers and sisters continued to gather around the spiritual leader, who in those years was also dedicated to the production of natural cosmetics. She made facial creams, toothpaste and deodorants, among other products that were scarce due to the blockades suffered by Chile during the government of Salvador Allende. The facility also had a knitting machine, with which they made vests and other clothes to sell.

Already established in Caliche, in 1973 she separated from her husband, who had kept away from the work of her spiritual group. Then, Laura Antonia started a relation with the congregation's priest Carlos Opazo.

The prayer chains became more and more massive, and cells of the congregation developed in other countries such as Brazil and Venezuela.

An initiative that was carried out during those years, with the objective of giving more diffusion to the divine teachings, was the distribution of a magazine called "Astral" among the brothers and at the airport of Santiago de Chile. There, between May and August 1972, the first prophecies channeled by the mother were published in a self-managed way.

Prophecy of Mother Laura Antonia published in Astral magazine (June 1972)

"Brothers, we are not alone.... Our beloved father creator has sent us beings from other planets of very high planes, who have reached the maximum of spiritual perfection, perfect and wise beings, who come to help this humanity that is about to succumb in the hands of men, whose intelligence is limited in creating powerfully destructive weapons that will lead to the death of two thirds of humanity.

Today our Paz y Amor Center, thanks to the infinite goodness of our Father, has the joy of receiving these divine beings who bring the sublime mission of demonstrating, with their presence, God's desire for all of us to participate in the divine life and to strip our spirits of hatred, ambition, selfishness and all the evil that nests in the human spirit, so that we may all await the final day in peace. Dear brothers and sisters, I invite everyone to participate in our Center to venerate our Father, the Divine Master Jesus and the Blessed Virgin Mary and to enjoy the presence of our interstellar brothers and sisters who watch over and protect our Center. You will be able to see how every night they greet us by making the sign of the cross and also sending their vibrations".

Destacamos:

- ★ LA ARMONIA DEL UNIVERSO
- ★ MISION DE HERMANDAD A CORONEL Y LOTA
- ★ TESTIMONIO DE SANIDAD Y FE EN DIOS

Prophecy of Mother Laura Antonia published in Astral magazine (July 1972)

"I will narrate some experiences that I have had with the brothers of the interstellar ships that patrol our country. One day when I was in a state of catalepsy, I arrived in spirit to a desolate place, which apparently was in the outskirts of Santiago. I was guided to where three spaceships were located, one of them being larger than the other two and whose characteristics I am going to tell you about: its structure was made of a compact material as if it were a single piece, of an opaque aluminum lead color and a dome shape, in whose upper and lower part there were intermittent sources of luminous energy, of an intense red color, very beautiful. Surrounding these sources, there were other smaller ones, white and green, which gave the ships a fantastic and impressive appearance. The ships were suspended about fifty centimeters above the surface. Upon arrival, I was greeted by seven brother crew members, who greeted me with the sign of the cross. They were about two meters tall, very perfect and proportionate, with a very white complexion, golden blond hair, semi-wavy, lips quite red and eyes of green, blue and violet colors, whose gazes were of a heavenly sweetness. They wore a very intense white suit, in one piece, which covered them from their feet to their necks and was tight to their bodies, revealing their beauty. Their leader led me to the mother ship, helping me to climb up a thirty-step ladder. I was followed by the other brothers, who were of both sexes. When I reached the last steps, a hatch opened suddenly and automatically, which was not visible to the naked eye. As I entered it, some very powerful white lights came on, the brightness of which made me close my eyes and still pierced my eyelids.

Then I heard their leader giving me the following message, in a voice that was pleasant to listen to, sweet, manly, deep and soft at the same time: 'humanity must be profoundly transformed. Everyone must know and practice the teachings of the messiah. Love the Father Creator. Today honesty, kindness and intelligence are very rare and very fragile in the peoples of this planet, as they have been in all times. Neither the wisdom nor the virtue of the ancient sages succeeded in changing men and, after almost two millennia, Christianity has not succeeded in doing so. If the scientists, philosophers, educators and earthly priests follow their path, man could be transformed into true man and son of the Father, we would be truly brothers and we could again communicate with you, as we did three thousand years before Christ, when by the will of the Father we came to help you and we were rejected by the weakness of man, by the excessive ambitions, by the thirst for power, because they thought they were sufficient, wise and perfect, but without love.

We have come to help them, sister Antonia. Be the faithful shepherdess of your flock and take care of them, because only the science of the Father can elevate human beings from this inferior state to a superior one, because the inferior in spirit are those who today believe themselves to be civilized, but are still savages, especially those whom you know as progressives and who tend in violent ways to establish only the community of material goods, forgetting all human values. In this way they distance themselves from the Father Creator, the only owner and lord of all creations. You, as spiritual ones, have the obligation to imitate as much as possible our master Messiah, although it is difficult to imitate in all his parts such a sublime and divine model, but he who claims to love him, must first love the Father Creator. May the light of his infinite charity shine in your spirits'.

When I got off the ship, it transformed into a beam of brilliant light, which took off at a speed greater than the speed of light. When they said goodbye to me, they did it again with the sign of the cross.

These spacecrafts do not belong to our solar system and their spirits are very high and very advanced".

Social work

In keeping with the commandment to "love one another," the brothers and sisters of Paz y Amor have also been engaged in various social works since their foundation.

Among their outstanding actions, they have provided aid to those affected by earthquakes and storms, through campaigns to collect clothes, food and medicines that were delivered as donations to the outskirts of Santiago. Such was the case of the mission that at the beginning of June 1972 carried out an operation in Coronel and Lota, localities that had been devastated by rain and windstorms in the South of Chile. The congregation was able to collect about 400 kilos of clothes and shoes in good condition that were delivered with the help of the Chilean Fire Department to the towns of Punta Astorga, Puerto Nuevo, Luis Emilio Recabarren and Salvador Allende. The newspaper called "El Sur" de Concepción published a chronicle of the mission, with photographs of the social operation.

Apart from these catastrophic cases, the Center constantly carries out campaigns to collect clothes and food to donate to children's and elderly people's homes. An example of this was the donations to the seventy patients of the Puente Alto Sanatorium. Aid was also taken to the hospital for the mentally ill and to a children's home in that district.

Christmas, the celebration of Jesus Christ's birth, has always been a special time for the brothers and sisters of Paz y Amor. For this reason, at this time, campaigns were launched to donate toys and candies, some handmade by parishioners throughout the year and others collected, to the children's homes maintained by Carabineros de Chile. (Police officers in Chile)

The charitable actions were coordinated by a Social Works Commission, which kept a small permanent stock of clothing and foodstuffs to provide immediate assistance to cases that reached the Center, either through the friars or through the news.

Against the nuclear bomb

Astral Magazine number 4, which was the last one to be printed, records an unprecedented event in the history of the Spiritual Center: in mid-June 1972, all the priests of the Paz y Amor Spiritist Center manifested before the National Congress against the atomic tests that France was carrying out in those years in the Mururoa atoll.

Wearing white robes and carrying signs saying "No to the nuclear bomb", they silently protested for an hour and then marched from the front of the old Congress building, located on Catedral Street, to the headquarters of Caliche, passing through the Plaza de Armas in Santiago. This was perhaps the only political action carried out by the brotherhood, in this case to defend Earth from the radioactive waves that spread around the South Pacific during the nuclear tests.

Between 1966 and 1996, France conducted a total of 193 nuclear tests on the atolls of Mururoa and Fangataufa. According to the International Atomic Energy Agency there were fifteen safety tests and one hundred and seventy-eight nuclear weapons tests. Of these, forty-one were atmospheric and the rest underwater.

The brotherhood marched against the nuclear tests

III. The Golden Years (1972-1989)

While the crisis that would mark the future of the country was brewing in Chile, the Congregation Paz y Amor united its brothers and sisters more than ever. In 1973, those were difficult times, and they were part of the local situation.

The testimonies of those who gathered on Thursdays to pray were passed from voice to voice. In those emotional meetings, the parishioners experienced the appearance of the Holy Spirit in the form of a luminous white dove that appeared and disappeared, they saw the ships of angels and archangels, energy rays in the form of meteors of light, as well as the revelations and prophecies that were constantly shared in the meetings.

Some of these events were recorded in the memory of their protagonists. "In the winter of 1980, I was keeping vigil in the house-plot. It was 10 p.m. Brother Arturo Cáceres saw a bright light at the top of a very tall tree at the end of the plot. Arturo asked to tell our spiritual guide, and she came out of her house with her family to see this beautiful bright white light. The light approached us, and, on its way, it took the shape of a dove the size of a swan. All of its platinum white plumage was shining with splendor. It was the Holy Spirit, and it was looking at Mother Antonia as she was looking at Him. The dove vanished before our eyes" says Salvador Siade about one of the sacred events that he experienced first-hand. He had witnessed something similar in 1979, together with a group of brothers, when in broad daylight a large transparent spacecraft circled a cloud at low altitude.

Many other brothers had this divine clairvoyance. Here we share some of their testimonies:

"One night, when I was keeping vigil in our temple in La Pintana, while I was praying and meditating under the almond trees, I saw an immense dove appear, of such a whiteness that it was like nothing else on Earth, leaving my spirit and my whole being full of joy, with vibrations felt, especially in my hands. I felt so small in front of this marvelous vision that I fell to my knees, feeling an immense joy in my spirit. Then, the Holy Spirit flew again in the same direction, as if redoing the journey", wrote Sister Julia Yáñez.

The priestess María Gladys Yáñez commented on one of her encounters with the Holy Spirit: "We were doing our prayer chain in the last patio, when suddenly I saw a light falling very close to us, at that moment a dove appeared, which grew bigger and bigger and spread its wings. It was white, luminous and in a swift flight it flew towards the walnut trees and got lost. It reappeared turning around and then flew again among the foliage of the trees, leaving in me an indescribable sensation. The memory of it is so vivid because it was the first time that I saw the Holy Spirit. To this day I seem to see him flapping his luminous and transparent wings, full of majesty, flying away and leaving a trail of light".

Meanwhile, the priest Miguel Angel Echeverria narrated an experience lived on March 27, 1986: "I was with my sister, wife and son in the second courtyard of the temple, waiting for the chain of prayers that on that day is offered in a very special way to the Divine Father Creator. When the afternoon was falling, a beautiful ray of energy crossed the firmament, in a north-south direction; and when the ray of energy seemed to reach the maximum point of the poplars, it burst like a bouquet of white flowers, in the majestic form of the Holy Spirit, who glided in harmonic flight before our eyes. I immediately fell to my knees and so did those who were with me, to praise and shout hallelujahs to our Divine Father Creator".

Brother Francisco Olave Jeldres had the joy of experiencing the presence of the Holy Spirit in his own home. "One night in February 1982, at about 10:30 p.m., I went out to the patio of my house to observe the sky and meditate. Then, I saw in the distance a little white spot gliding and disappearing. Several spots appeared a little closer and moved for about four meters. I understood that it was a divine vision, and I raised my hands to praise and bless our Divine Father Creator. When the scene reappeared, I could see that it was a flock of luminous little white doves, each flying at the same distance and each time they appeared, they were seen closer. There were four of them and on the last appearance they came so close, they got about five feet away from me. Then one moved away and passed over my head, for a few seconds, then flew away until it was lost. I was on my knees and cried with emotion".

Mother Antonia waking up from a spiritual possession

Believe in God Almighty

In May 1973, the congregation moved again to the place where Mother also established a new home. It was the plot of land on Los Cipreses Street, in La Pintana, which would see the Paz y Amor community flourish over the next decades, while its ministry was being consolidated.

The highest spirits had transmitted their main teachings. Thus, according to these prophecies delivered to Mother Antonia, the pillars of her creed were established (more information on this topic in the following chapter "Spiritual Science"):

- God Almighty is the creator of the infinite universe and of all spirits. There is the Divine Father Creator, God Almighty, owner and lord of everything in the infinite universe. There is no emptiness, because he fills everything, he vivifies everything. He is all love, all goodness, all justice.

In the early times of the universe, the Divine Father drew from himself the substance to create the spirits, beings with their own intelligence, to manifest and evolve, forming the human spirit, at which time the Father added the seven atoms of love, as energy centers, forming man in his image and likeness.

The universe was populated by creatures, and in them the love, wisdom and power of the Creator was manifested. Since then, everything lives for its purpose: to follow the path of perfection, under his perfect laws.

His creation, the universe is a material expression of the divine, his eternal thought.

Great is his mercy, because he gives us many opportunities to elevate ourselves spiritually, that is why the law of reincarnation exists.

The spirit created by God in the first civilization of mankind - because it should not be forgotten that the planet Earth was a later creation than the Universe - had Adam and Eve as the first prophets. They remained in a state of purity and innocence, for some time there was harmony among all creatures, but when passions and instincts arose and having free will, they decided to reveal themselves to the designs of the Father.

The Divine Father has always helped man, so He sends prophets and messengers to guide mankind on its path, to refresh the laws and once again to make the way brighter.

Great and wonderful are his works.

- There is the spirit, an electromagnetic spark that animates our material bodies, and it is immortal and individual.
- Reincarnation is a law of justice of the Divine Creator Father. This means that all spirits were created in unison, ignorant and imperfect and, through reincarnation, spirits return to Earth as many times as necessary, in a constant progress, to reach the perfection of God.
- Humanity is living the beginnings of the Apocalypse. This is confirmed by the manifestations of the interstellar ships of the Masters of the Cosmogony of the Divine Master Jesus, the Holy Spirit and his rays of light.

Some of these revelations were published in the magazine Astral, a self-managed publication that published four issues during 1974, sharing the reason why men should seek God, and provoked the reaction of ill-intentioned people, some of them former participants of the congregation and others seeking revenge against its leaders. Such was the case of Carlos Opazo's ex-spouse, who did not hesitate to file complaints and went as far as the mass media to denigrate Mother Laura and her partner.

The temple

In mid-1973, Mother Antonia began the construction of a cosmetics laboratory on a plot of land on Los Cipreses Street, which in the following year already had the corresponding permits to operate. However, because of the religious persecution that had begun to take shape, the National Health Service (SNS) decided to block the start-up of the business when everything was ready for its operation. The head of the SNS Pharmacy Section was the one who received false accusations, instigated by Carlos Opazo's ex-wife, which pointed to the Congregation as a group of "delinquents, communists and extremists".

Along with the denunciations, which then took on false political overtones, there were also threats of raids. On the night of July 14, 1976, some twenty brothers gathered at the door of the Los Cipreses Street plot of land, responding to the slander and singing hymns in their white robes, in addition to demanding justice for the imminent confiscation of the laboratory.

The neighbors called the police, who showed up, firing two shots, without caring that there were children among those present, and then arrested all those who had gathered there, including Mother Antonia.

To justify the excessive violence, police officer Felix Gonzalez said that the brothers had shouted slogans against the current Government. The officers stopped a bus to take them to the San Rafael police station, where two hours later they were interrogated. Afterwards, the transferred them to Tres Alamos prison camp, in San Joaquin district, which was controlled by the National Intelligence Directorate (DINA). Women and men were kept standing until five in the morning, resisting the winter cold. Finally, they were separated and taken to the cells.

That same night, after the arrest, the policemen tried to set up a frame-up to incriminate the brothers and sisters, attempting to enter the property of neighbor Miguel Siu-chin with a pick-up truck full of weapons. The uniformed officers tried to enter the temple through this adjoining land, which, thanks to the neighbor's refusal, they were unable to do.

Most of the brothers and sisters were released for lack of evidence the day after their capture, leaving in detention Mother Laura, Opazo, the president Práxedes Barrientos and the priest Gabriel Ureta, who had been arrested on the same charges during the DINA raid on the church the day after the first arrests, and in view of his refusal to remove his white tunic.

Mother Antonia held incommunicado and did not eat until they were released on the sixth day. Her health was affected to such an extent that she had to be treated by a doctor. The six days of anguish that they experienced during their detention came to an end and the return home was celebrated by the whole family and the brothers and sisters of the congregation.

The persecution continues

After the episode in which they were falsely accused and treated as political prisoners, the religious persecution did not stop. Despite this, they were able to continue their activities without major setbacks, making powerful prayer chains, calling on the pure forces of cosmogony to help the country during the difficult times of the dictatorship.

It was not until two years later, in September 1978, that a new episode occurred that would remain engraved in the history of the Congregation. Journalists from Channel 13, a local network, attended a day of prayer and witnessed the appearance of white doves, symbol of the guardian angels who were present at the session.

Despite this, the journalists were incredulous. Later, Carlos Opazo was summoned to the popular program Sábado Gigante, where he had to defend the group in the face of new allegations from the neighbors. That same month, through a public deed the Centro Espírita Paz y Amor changed its name to Congregación Espiritual Paz y Amor, explaining that it is a Christian religion founded in Chile.

The string of false accusations continued, signed by the same officer who directed the arrests in 1976. According to Carlos Opazo's records, the officer sent a report to the Ministry of Justice, dated April 8, 1978, which included eight statements made by Opazo's ex-spouse, a land's neighbor and six other people, in which they declared that "the pseudo-religious group called Paz y Amor worships Mrs. Antonia Alcaíno, whom they present as a saint, a fortune teller, with supernatural powers, proselytizing, demanding contributions from the humble people for the maintenance of the cult, thanks to that, they don't need to work at all (...) It is an organization basically formed to exploit the naivety and belief of the people in the supernatural powers attributed to this 'Mother Antonia' who officiates as a medium". A second report made on October 2nd of the same year by the Fiscal Office of Legal Entities of the Ministry of Justice concluded that "the required statutory purposes" were not fulfilled, so on January 12th, 1979, by means of the Supreme Decree N°101, the legal personality that had been granted to the Congregation in 1972 was cancelled. This fact was also syndicated in the book "Las sectas juveniles en Chile", by Juan Guillermo Prado (Editorial Covadonga, 1984), to whom the Congregation sent a letter to clarify the calumnies of which it continued to be victim.

As a way of responding to these lies, the Congregation opened its doors to the team of "Informe Especial", a journalistic investigation program of Televisión Nacional in Chile, in 1985. In the report, they show the brothers and sisters praying in their robes in the plot of land and comment on some of the Congregation's practices. In spite of this, the lies would not cease and the public attacks would return in later years. None of this dampened the spirits of the brothers, who continued to meet to pray, study and analyze the teachings of God given to them by Mother Antonia.

The message that interrupted the TV

Further proof of the existence of interstellar craft piloted by cosmogony masters was recorded in the United Kingdom, when a message interrupted television broadcasts on Southern Television in southern England on November 26, 1977. For six minutes, a voice claiming to be part of the intergalactic Ashtar command broke into the newscast, delivering the following message:

"For many years you have seen us as lights in the heavens. We speak to you now in peace and wisdom as we have spoken to your brothers and sisters throughout this planet Earth. We come to warn you of the fate of your race and world so that you may communicate to your fellows the course you must follow to avert the disaster that threatens your world and the beings of our worlds around you. This is so that you can share in the great awakening as the planet moves into the New Age of Aquarius. The New Age can be a time of great peace and evolution for your race, but it can only be a time of great peace and evolution for your race if their rulers are aware of the evil forces that can overshadow their judgments (...) All weapons of evil must be eliminated. The time of conflict is past and the race of which they are a part can proceed to the higher stages of their evolution if they prove worthy to do so. They have little time to learn to live together in peace and goodwill. Small groups all over the planet are learning this and exist to transmit the light of the dawning New Age to all of you. You are free to accept or reject its teachings, but only those who learn to live in peace will pass into the higher realms of spiritual evolution....".

A week later, in one of the visits of the teachers through Mother Laura Antonia, a brother of the Congregation asked about this case and the teacher answered: "Yes, it was one of our brothers".

The factory of hopes

Throughout this period, they continued to carry out missions of diffusion of spiritual science and social works, helping the friars who suffered some difficulty or in the climatic or seismic catastrophes so typical of Chile, collecting donations of food, clothing and household goods.

In mid-1976, they decided to set up a workshop in La Pintana to manufacture wooden toys, such as trucks, cradles and horses, to collect enough to distribute to the children at Christmas. The toys were made by the brothers voluntarily and with much love on Sundays. This delivery, which continues to this day, also includes the purchase of some extra toys to complement what was made by the brothers and sisters and is done with a brief ceremony, in which a prayer of thanks is recited, and a brother offers a speech about the existence of God. The brothers were as happy as the children with their toys to see them play.

These social works continued to be carried out every year in Santiago and regions, as well as in the city of Curitiba, Brazil.

Christmas gift delivery in the eighty

IV. Spiritual Science

The doctrine of the Congregation is the spiritual science, which consists of the teachings of Jesus Christ coming from the Father Creator, transmitted to humanity in different epochs by prophets and messengers of God.

The prophets and messengers are beings with a great spiritual development, chosen by God to bring the truth to Earth, as was the case of Mother Antonia. The Angels, also guided by God, deliver this divine message, through the prophets, to those who have reached an adequate spiritual level.

The Congregation Paz y Amor does not consider itself a religion, distancing itself from traditional religious creeds. Although they venerate God, they follow the teachings of Jesus and the Masters of Cosmogony, which were revealed to Mother Laura Antonia, founder of this group.

They respect the Bible as the bearer of God's wisdom, although they recognize that it has been distorted. With the light they have received, they interpret the scriptures in their true form. This was expressed by a teacher through Mother Laura in 1971:

"This marvelous science, interprets the gospel with the word of Christ, which must be without shadows, subterfuge or vanity, but which demonstrates that the actions done on Earth have immediate repercussions in the spiritual life, because the spirit takes part in the material activities of man."

The human spirit

According to spiritual science, human spirits, men and women, are composed of:

1. Spirit: An immortal, thinking faculty that can be described as an indestructible electromagnetic spark. It accumulates experience through successive reincarnations. It resides in the pineal gland and controls the body through the perispirit.
2. Perispirit: Permanent wrapper of the spirit, made of subtle matter, intermediary between the spirit and the body, which allows you to feel and communicate thoughts.
3. Body: Perfect machine, which functions as an instrument of the spirit during a life span defined by divine justice.

The laws of the universe

What is the universe made of? The whole universe is composed of universal cosmic fluid or ether, the principle of all matters and life. Simple bodies are transformations of this primitive matter. The ether is the only substance that exists and from it comes all matter, motion and life.

The Divine Father created the universe with wisdom and perfection, governed by laws and advanced spiritual helpers, such as angels and archangels. Everything in the universe follows a harmonious and synchronized regime, directed by the masters under the authority of God.

These divine laws are:

- Law of reincarnation: The spirit must live through many experiences to attain wisdom and virtue. Different lives provide different lessons necessary for spiritual progress.

Some references to this law are present in the Gospel. For example, in Matthew 17:10-13: "Then his disciples asked him, 'Why then do the scribes say that Elijah must first come? Jesus answered and said to them, 'Elijah is indeed coming first, and he will restore all things. But I say unto you, That Elias has come already, and they knew him not, but did unto him whatsoever they would. So shall the Son of man also suffer from them. Then the disciples understood that he had spoken to them about John the Baptist'". While in the Bible we read: "And you shall go to the end, and shall rest, and arise to receive your inheritance at the end of the days", Daniel 12:13.

- Law of Justice: Every act is recorded and evaluated. The spirit suffers or progresses according to its actions in past lives. When the individual disembodies, he arrives in the spiritual world and undergoes self-judgment; then the higher spirits help him to prepare for his new incarnation. The law of justice is executed in its perfection for each spirit, giving to each one what he deserves. "You who do not know at present where you are going to arrive, even though everything obeys the inflexible Law of Justice of our Creator Father. The cause of so many evils is that men forget that justice. The confusion is due to the false priests, the false prophets, and all the religious people existing on Earth, who led men to perdition, bewilderment and fatal confusion", expressed the masters.

- Law of Compensation: Good deeds can lessen karma and facilitate spiritual progress.
- Law of Love: One must love the Divine Father and his creation above all things. The only nourishment of the spirit is love, without it the spirit lives in agony.

Man has freedom of action, but he must be accountable to divine laws. This is how Master Wagner transmitted it, in July 1972: "You know, you have free will. We have given white robes to scoffers, who believing themselves wise are hypocrites, we have given robes to wolves covered with sheepskin, stirred up among the true servants of Christ. But we know very well those who have really grasped and follow our knowledge, and we know how to separate the tares from the good seed. I ask you brethren not to forget our teachings, not to depart from the good."

Keep working and never deny that you have seen the light".

Universal magnetism

Magnetism is the force generated in the universe by the constant movement of atoms, molecules, ions and corpuscles. This energy is in continuous change and transformation, being an essential part of life. Magnetism represents the materialization of the ether, which in turn is the manifestation of the eternal thought of the Creator, destined for perpetual creation.

Each aspect of magnetism follows precise laws that govern the universe in perfect harmony, where everything occupies its place in space without interfering with the rest. This universal system is immutable and, if the balance of these laws is disturbed, disorders are generated that affect humanity and spirits. Synchronism is the law that keeps everything in balance; when it is respected, the laws manifest in all beings and elements. However, syncretism, a confusion of opposing ideas, creates chaos, as it tries to unite what cannot be united, such as twinning science and religion.

Knowledge of magnetism is crucial to understanding the progress of the individual. Magnetic forces reflect the spiritual advancement of each person, which evolves through his or her experiences and efforts. Throughout his life on Earth, the human being accumulates forces that prepare him for a greater world, where wisdom is transformed into light.

Spiritual magnetism is a universal force, the result of the omnipotence of God's spiritual science. This wisdom guides the progress of humanity and the universe, leading to a final judgment that synchronizes the progress of each being. This judgment is unappealable and is based on universal justice. In this process, the fallacies of religions, which cannot stand before the truth and power of the universe in solidarity, are unmasked.

Everything in the universe operates under this spiritual magnetism and the harmony between evolved consciousnesses shows that the chaos caused by syncretism can no longer dominate. Thus, humanity is called a new era of peace and solidarity, where universal doctrines guide the construction of a lasting future.

Animal and spiritual magnetism are the same, only that in the human being, this magnetism is manifested according to his degree of spiritual evolution. Man is a dynamo of the universe, capable of generating light when his spirit, mind and body are in balance. If there is no harmony, magnetism remains static. But when it is activated and the forces are balanced, light is generated, reflecting the will and reason of the human being.

For human beings to reach their full potential, they must understand the trinity of their nature: spirit (positive pole), soul (neutral resistance) and body (negative pole). When these elements are in harmony, magnetism flows, driving intelligence and justice. This balance makes man a true representation of earthly magnetism, which is the basis of life and the reflection of the supreme creator.

Finally, all human works are magnetic; the magnetic remnant in all things is what enables man to create and produce. Without this force, existence would be impossible.

Magnetism in the incarnation

Magnetism is also present in the process of incarnation. In this process, by law of justice and affinity, the spirit chooses its future parents, in total freedom, uniting its magnetism to theirs.

The spirit receives help from other more evolved spirits to prepare the destiny that it must fulfill on Earth, from birth to disembodiment. Everything is written down. Then it is the spirit itself that chooses parents and from the moment of conception, the magnetism of the father and the mother are united. With the guidance of the higher spirits, he molds his perispirit and his body in gestation. Once he is born into material life, he is said to be incarnated.

This individual being or spirit, who has come to the world to obtain his own experience, knowledge and payment of faults or karmas, will live a new life on Earth until the moment of disembodiment, or culmination of the earthly life, prescribed beforehand by the divine laws, arrives. Only then does the spirit return to live the true life, the spiritual life.

Life, morals and duties

The Masters teach that life is only the Spirit, because of its immortality and permanent evolution. The true life is that of the spiritual world, therefore the supreme truth is Spiritual Science.

Morality, meanwhile, is the science of duties, which indicates how people should behave to achieve success. The moral reformation of man is the basis for social reformation; this is achieved through the knowledge and practice of Spiritual Science, which is the main guide and purpose that embraces all human activities. Man's obligation is to do things within certain laws and concepts of morality.

Does extraterrestrial life exist?

Mother Antonia revealed that the entire Universe is inhabited by spirits in different degrees of progress and that our planet is still primitive in the scale of universal progress.

Some extraterrestrial manifestations recorded in the sacred scriptures are the references to the "Sons of God" in Genesis, the star of Bethlehem, the cloud that protected the people of Israel in the desert, the chariots of fire of Elijah and Exequiel, among others. In the gospel, Acts 1:9-11, it describes how the apostles witnessed the ascension of Jesus and the appearance of two men in white robes, who spoke to them as they looked up to heaven. "And when he had said these things, when they saw him, he was taken up, and a cloud received him, and hid him from their eyes. And while they were looking into heaven, as he was going away, behold, there stood by them two men in white raiment, who also said unto them, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? This same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven."

Just as Mother Antonia was able to transmit the messages of the masters, they also monitor and visit the Earth from on high. "The Masters of Cosmogony, who are incarnated in higher worlds, come on mission in their spaceships. We can only see the ships when they pass through the skies of our country, like stars in movement, we greet their passage and they turn on their lights a little more for a few seconds, the latter does not always happen. In addition, there are multiple close sightings in different parts of the planet, where they have been shown as testimony to the profane", explains one of the brothers of the Congregation.

What is commonly known as UFO (unidentified flying object) are ships piloted by superior beings, who come to fulfill a mission to Earth by the will of the Divine Father Creator. One of the messages of the masters exemplifies the reason why these ships visit the Earth: "By mandate of the Creator Father, today there are in the eyes of earthly men, ships manned with material beings like you, but intelligent and wise, progressed and with their terrestrial visit from space they are signaling the proximity of the end of time" (message channeled on April 23, 1972 by Mother Antonia).

The tunic as a symbol

The habit of all the members of the Congregation is a long white tunic, which represents the coming of the Apocalypse. It is fastened at the waist with a white braided cord. The tunic has the sleeve regularly wide, the gender is to free choice, being able to be even of sack. On the tunic, in the middle of the chest, is located the red heart of the Master Jesus, which represents peace and love. This heart has the image of the Holy Spirit drawn on it in the form of a white dove. It has embroidered rays with golden thread surrounding the heart.

Ceremonies

The Congregation usually meets on various prayer rituals, such as:

- Sacred chain of prayers: every Thursday since the foundation of the Congregation.
- Foundation of the Congregation: celebrated on October 2, with a chain of prayers.
- Jesus's transitus: it is commemorated on April 30, with a sacred chain of prayer.
- Jesus's birth: Celebrated on December 24 with a prayer chain and distribution of toys and food.
- Divine Father Creator's Day: every March 27, a prayer chain is held, a special honey bread is baked to represent the manna and charitable works are carried out.

V. Before the end of the millennium

During the 1980s, Mother moved with Archbishop Carlos and three of her children to Garcia Hurtado de Mendoza Street, in La Florida. After 1988, her health deteriorated drastically due to the constant spiritual possession during the previous decades. However, she never ceased to be a channel of the divine message. "Even if I am in the ultimate misery, my spirit will always be with the Divine Father. This is not the only life. I offer the Father all my sufferings" she told one of the sisters of the Congregation during those years.

When 1990 arrived, Chile was celebrating the return of democracy and the Congregation, which at that time had hundreds of adherents, tried to recover its juridical personality. However, through a report dated March 26, 1992, the authorities decided that "the request for the granting of legal status filed by the entity called Congregación Espiritual Paz y Amor has no place", arguing that they were the same people whose legal status had been revoked in 1979 and that they also had the same address.

On May 3rd, 1993, a natural tragedy occurred in Santiago, a flood came down from the Quebrada de Macul area, flooding several districts of Santiago with mud, leaving more than thirty thousand victims and 26 people dead. The wave of mud reached three blocks from the mother's home. Divine protection had saved her family; however, God's messengers had told her that they had to move urgently. That is how they decided to return to live in the house of La Pintana, where at that time prayer chains were held, and toys were made for charity.

As they did every year, the brothers donated part of their time to make and distribute toys and food to children from low-income families. In 1994, deliveries were made to Public School 620 in Puente Alto; Public School D-537, El Esfuerzo School and Santa Ana Foundation in La Pintana; the Tucapel Vallejos Girls' Home in Ciudad del Niño; the Coihueco Public School in Temuco and many other places in Chile.

In 1998, Mother lived with three of her children, all over 30 years of age. Two of them had their university studies paid for by the congregation. However, upon learning of their poor student performance, she urged them to become independent and cut off their financial help. This provoked their anger. That same year, two of the sons decided to attack the congregation, presenting false accusations on the 24 Horas news program of National Chilean Television network. Three reports were aired in the central edition. In the first one, Miriam Núñez said that they would not let her see her mother and that they did not know where she was. In a second article, they interviewed the lawyer Luis Acevedo, who talked about the alleged mistreatment received by Manuel, another of the mother's sons, who was the main one involved in the accusations and did not appear in any of the articles. In a subsequent news item, Carlos Opazo gave his version of the facts, stating that the complaint made by the Mother's children "lacks any basis and is only intended to continue pressuring and psychologically violating their mother". Finally, all the complaints were dismissed.

The sadness caused by these false accusations was detrimental to the health of the Mother, just when everyone was nervously watching the arrival of the turn of the century. Although for a long time it was thought that the year two thousand could be the hour of judgment, it turned out to be an earthly interpretation of the messages of the masters, who never have time or a human calendar.

That same year 2000, one afternoon when Mother was in good spirits despite her health problems, she asked one of the brothers who were guarding the house to cook something for the group that was on the plot. "The brothers that were there were Carlos Opazo, Saba Hadwue, Andrés Prouvay, René Larenas, Marcelo de la Huerta, Claudio Morales and Ruddy Palma. Sometime before, for some reason due to her illness, Mother stopped speaking. That evening, as it was beginning to get dark, we had dinner with our Mother and had a pleasant conversation", recalls one of those present about that occasion that will remain forever in our memories captured in a snapshot.

Only three more years would be enough to take Mother to heaven. Despite the great blow of the loss of their guide, the congregation remains dedicated to preserving her legacy and teachings.

In 2004, they were reinstated as a legal entity. Currently, the Congregación Espiritual Paz y Amor continues to work on the dissemination of Spiritual Science through social networks, such as Facebook and Instagram and on its website cienciaespiritualpazyamor.cl. In addition, they maintain their prayer chain every Thursday and activities related to various social works.

1999

VI. The legacy of Laura Antonia, the prophetess

Mother, as a perfect medium, was the means of communication between the masters of cosmogony and mankind. Her mission on Earth was to transmit these messages and to teach men the divine science. She brought a light of hope to all humanity, in the middle of the 20th century, as the divine master Jesus and the prophets of antiquity had done before.

Here are fragments of the main messages delivered by Mother Antonia in her mediumistic trances, between 1967 and 1998.

Love and spirituality

Mankind, all humanity. In the name of the Divine Father Creator, we call you to sanity, to peace, to love.

Reflect. They are used to this way of living, without love. They are tied to that ghost, by its ambitious and criminal hands, with their fear and cold, they have put ice locks in the hearts of men, and they have not been able to feel the warmth of love. And without the faculties of love, the faculties of man have become anesthetized, they have descended. Thus, they will not be able to ascend to the luminous worlds, where one learns life and its causes, where one learns to love truly.

Your spirits must understand that true life is that of the spiritual one, the matter or physical body is an apparent illusion, it is in constant transformation through its atoms. We are all spirits created in the likeness of our Divine Father Creator, therefore, immortal.

The Divine Creator Father has made the laws of love, under which we all must live. Without the laws of justice, affinity and compensation, no one can claim to have the law of love and there can be no wisdom. The conscious power of wisdom is crowned by love.

You must know that the spirit is only nourished by love, the spirit only lives by love. Without love, the spirit is in agony, in an enervating, painful state, until true reality takes it out of this almost neurotic state.

Instructions for spiritual progress

Spiritual progress is the purification of the spirit, which is achieved through love and good deeds, and learning in this life, from which pride and selfishness must be eliminated, because we have come to purify ourselves.

The supreme truth is life, for life is only spirit. Therefore, the supreme truth is Spiritual Science. This is unknown to many men who live in darkness and ignorance, bound and tied to dogmas.

The Divine Father wishes his laws to be respected, that all men follow the process of progress and perfection.

The first thing to progress spiritually is to love the Divine Father Creator above all things, with living and indestructible faith.

Man must always be in the circle of wisdom, beauty and justice. For that to be accomplished, pride and arrogance must be uprooted, as well as excessive self-love and not love for the Divine Father. Prejudices which are hypocrisy and foolishness, envy, evil thoughts, which threaten against truth, against justice. Selfishness means egolatry and perdition.

If you truly wish to serve the Creator Father, you must be zealous in labor and righteousness, tireless in works. The Father, in return, will give you the vigorous strength of His one true love.

We must have discernment, will and perseverance. Discernment is the key for understanding the reason when lack of results. Will and perseverance must conform to the ultimate law of love.

With reasoned will, perseverance and discernment, you will have enough talents to undertake the path, accompanied by the indispensable moral conditions, those that are essential for spiritual progress and faithful fulfillment of duties.

First, you must have rectitude of conscience, which will give you true peace of mind. The desire to be useful to your fellow men. To look down on no one with contempt. To be humble, without demeaning or servility. To be unconcerned with the lives of others and to be interested only in the events of others in which your help is required and which the law puts in your way for their own spiritual progress.

Kill envy in yourselves, to the root.

Men can become wise, if they are determined to recognize the Father, master and lord of all the infinite universe and of all spirits, by following these teachings; stop being matter to be spirit; leaving aside numerous small things that divert them from the true path of the Father.

You, the men who have kept the commandments of the Divine Master Jesus, who have banished forever from your spirits hatred, envy and violence, must also divest yourselves of pride, arrogance and the weaknesses of human passions, to become men of good.

Orient your life in works of love and charity towards your brothers and sisters.

Humanity must transform itself

We know that the human mind is so narrow, and it is very difficult for it to come to its senses, since most of men are used to act according to the animal instinct that leads them to perdition.

Remember that you no longer live in caves, like animals, that you no longer cover your bodies with animal skins. That articulate language is no longer a guttural cry, that writing is legible, no longer signs or symbols. Remember that you no longer flee from the wild beasts, but the wild beasts flee from you.

Everything is evolving, everything is changing on this planet and in all worlds. There is eternal transformation, but death has never existed and should never exist. And today, the chains that they made and keep them prisoners, have been broken. The ice fetters are melted and the paths to life are open, the foolish ones who maintain that it is necessary to live only the life of the Earth are no longer heard. And it is because they are identified in their heaviness and support the rickety principle.

The world has lost its way, it is tired of words and doctrines. They have been content to live, seeking what is necessary for the sustenance of their body, forgetting their being, their spirit.

Love one another as the Divine Master Jesus said. The human being must understand that it is up to each one to suffer to a greater or lesser degree according to his actions and that this suffering is a consequence of his bad deeds. Moreover, all these sufferings are infinitely rewarded. Nothing is left without payment; each one will receive according to his deeds and works.

Do not expect to receive good who has sown hatred and evil, but remember that the Divine Father, in his infinite wisdom and goodness, gives us many opportunities to progress, and these are the successive incarnations.

Prophecies

Very difficult times are coming, times of great bitterness, of great calamities, dangers and suffering. Events will arise that will seem illogical or absurd to those who are wrongly called men, even scientists will be surprised and will not understand, nor will they be able to do anything.

If all men on this planet would turn their gaze towards the Divine Father and do works of love and understand the true science, know how to understand and feel all the love with which the Divine Creator pours into them, everything would be different.

Today, men are oblivious to all that is coming, because there is total ignorance and confusion among men of this earth, who, out of pride and ignorance, do not want to understand.

We have delivered many prophecies that will be fulfilled to the last of them, and others that have already been fulfilled.

Wars and violence will continue, there will be meteorological phenomena that will bring destruction and death, there will be famine and mortality, diseases of radioactive origin for which man will not find remedies, there will be strong earthquakes that will shake the Earth. Almost all the volcanoes of the Earth will erupt. Horrified, men will flee like herds of wounded beasts, there will be an earthquake of such magnitude as no other has ever been and the Divine Master Jesus will descend to protect his servants, amidst tremors, fire, lightning and thunder and will mark in the ether a dividing line from east to west. On one side will be the destruction, horror and wickedness of man, and on the other side, wearing white robes, will be the servants, those who today serve and venerate him, because in venerating the Master, one venerates and loves the almighty Divine Father Creator.

Then, everything will come to life, the trees, the plants, the water, will be dressed in beautiful radiant colors, then birds of multiple and most beautiful colors will descend and spaceships from unknown planets will come to the aid of the chosen ones. Only then will peace and love reign forever. Perhaps the latter will be that God, in his infinite goodness and justice, will transfer his servants to higher astral planes.

Men throughout the ages have distorted the teachings, have given them different interpretations, to keep mankind in complete ignorance.

Spiritual Science makes a call to all those who with love, sacrifice and living faith, want to wear the white robes, garments that the Divine Master asks for, because the final hour is very near, because we are already at the beginning of the end, because the Earth has already begun to suffer, and each one has to receive what they deserves.

These messages are of warning and hope for men of this Earth to know the truth.

The justice of the Divine Father, to each one according to his works, will be the one that will remove all the evil that exists in this world. The Divine Master Jesus will come. He will pass the sickle of Divine justice blinding the tares and leaving only the wheat.

Times of tribulation are coming, when all their power, their gold, and their understanding will not be enough to contain the weight of Divine justice.

Men from ancient times have doubted the word brought by the prophets and their prophecies. You see how the prophecies of former times have been mostly fulfilled. What we are now announcing will also be fulfilled.

Those men who rise above all material vanities, above all human miseries, will be able to resist with serenity and calm the universal chaos and will be like castaways in the middle of the ocean and thus will be able to survive the pain, the confusion, the coming storm.

A very great trial is approaching for all mankind, so great that in all the history of its centuries, it has had no equal.

We have left messages of warning in many forms, so that all men on this planet may reflect, meditate and be alert.

Three quarters of the Earth will perish. The Earth will tremble, and the sun will make fall on this world hot rays that will burn its surface, the winters will be long and harsh, and its snows will be the symbol of purification and the spring will not know in what time it will arrive.

Man will be guilty of the end of civilization and the destruction of almost the entire human race.

Men, what are your hands and intelligence? With them they are manufacturing the death of their own innocent brothers, who will be razed to the ground in the fire of their own hell.

In the name of the Divine Father Creator, destroy your weapons!

The hand of man has unleashed justice upon himself. In his brain a whirlwind stir, in his heart a tempest rages, and all this is manifested in nature, its elements are unleashed, the seasons become inclement. It is that their sins grow producing diseases of the spirit, of the mind and of the body, and the foolish and reckless science does not recognize the order of the disposition of our Divine Creator.

The importance of prayer

It is necessary that they give proof of the power of spiritual prayer, as in past times they were given by those men whom they remember as patriarchs, guides and prophets. Believe in the strength and power of prayer but know that for the prayer to reach the Father Creator, it must first be felt. Do not doubt the power of love, do not doubt the power of faith.

If they had great faith and a greater knowledge of the power of prayer, how many works of charity would they do with their thoughts? However, they have not given the prayer the power it has. That is why they often fail to realize what they are rejecting in a moment of heartfelt and true prayer.

If humanity knew how to pray, it would unite its mind and heart to its spirit, it would hear in its conscience the voice of the Divine Father Creator and would feel his presence very close.

When you pray, understand that the Divine Father asks for work. Do charity every day, that is the best spiritual elevation, bring peace where there is discord. Give, help, console, that is the true prayer, because you will speak to God with work, not with words.

Do not believe that the Father is cruel. He is all love, all goodness, all justice. Cruelty is for those who do not want to understand and in their pride deceive themselves.

Therefore, seek justice in this life, because later, when you cry out for it, it will come to squeeze out the essences that you have saved for the end.

But you are still free until the judgment, where everything speaks to you without a tongue and all the essences of good and evil are oppressed. The good ascends, and the forces of evil, on the other hand, become powerful, descending chains, where they are imprisoned in their own prison. Because even they see, they deny the existence of the spirit.

The Divine Father prepared the spirit and matter with wisdom and perfection so that they would form a single being capable of reaching the end of his great destiny, with willpower to advance in the spiritual.

To succeed in this process of spiritual progress, the human being must have righteousness of conscience, doing thought and word, in works of good and wisdom.

They have two paths to follow of their own free will: love or pain. One narrow but full of light, which is that of virtue, or the other full of false pleasures.

The beings of this Earth who have the will and the love to continue with their works and our teachings will be the pillars for the future generation, they will be prepared to be wise and teachers for the blind men of spirit, for the men without light.

The spirit calls

Throughout this book a message has been transmitted that will last forever, the same message that the Divine Master Jesus and the prophets of the Old Testament brought to humanity. Despite the centuries of darkness and misrepresentation of this truth, today it resurfaces with strength. Our congregation, which was born thanks to the teachings and legacy of the prophetess Mother Laura Antonia, with the help of the angels of the Divine Father, continues its mission to spread its message of love, justice and hope.

Humanity is facing an inevitable transformation. The institutions that have dominated the course of history are tottering and archaic beliefs, sustained by fear and ignorance, are dissolving. The men of Earth, still blind to spiritual science, must awaken to the reality of what is to come. The disciples of Mother Antonia, with deep faith, continue to deliver this message of hope, justice and love, aware that the promise of the return of the Divine Master is near.

Those who do not open their hearts to the truth of the Divine Father and their Master Jesus will know pain, but those who follow the path of light will be protected and guided into a new era of peace and love. Time is shortening and the Earth will be renewed to reestablish the truth, which already claims its place.

This book has not been written just to tell a story, but to bring together those who are called to prepare their spirits for what is to come. It is time to break the chains that have oppressed humanity for centuries, to lift the veil that has covered the truth, and to accept the teachers' motto: "Love one another," without distinction, without prejudice, but always with justice and purity of mind.

Those who feel this call are invited to take a step further on their spiritual path. If this message has resonated in your heart, if you feel you are destined to be part of this transformation, you can contact the Paz y Amor congregation through the website cienciaespiritualpazyamor.cl. There, you will find a space for those who seek the truth and wish to walk with the righteous in this new era that is about to arrive.

Time is short, but the promise of the Divine Master is still alive. The invitation is made; be prepared, because what is coming is great. Only those who walk in the light of love and justice will be ready to receive it.

This book is an invitation to eternal and divine truth. May love, peace and justice guide the path of all who feel called!

Glory to God in the highest and peace on Earth to men of good will!

